Gospel message

What would you do if Jesus knocked on your door and said, "I must stay at your house today"? Would you be excited or embarrassed? Jesus often "dropped-in" at unexpected times and he often visited the "uninvited" -- the poor, the lame, even public sinners like Zacchaeus, the tax collector! Tax collectors were despised and treated as outcasts, no doubt because they accumulated great wealth at the expense of others. Zacchaeus was a chief tax collector and was much hated by all the people. Why would Jesus single him out for the honor of staying at his home? Zacchaeus needed God's merciful love and in his encounter with Jesus he found more than he imagined possible. He shows the depth of his repentance by deciding to give half of his goods to the poor and to use the other half for making restitution for fraud. Zacchaeus' testimony included more than words. His change of heart resulted in a change of life, a change that the whole community could experience as genuine. The Lord is always ready to make his home with us. Do you make room for him in your heart and in your home? "Lord, come and stay with me. Fill my home with your presence and fill my heart with your praise. Help me to show kindness and mercy to all, even those who cause me harm."

CCD NEWS

Lent Season

In this season of lent, we should all try to give up something valuable to us. Because meat was considered a celebratory food, it was often chosen as something one would give up. Nowadays, you can give up not only meat, but anything that helps you focus on faith. This could range from TV & movies, to junk food, books, or even social media. Many choose to save the money that they would have otherwise spent on these luxuries and choose to donate it to the church or a charity. Participating in these 40 days of lent will help you identify negative behaviors or items that you have a dependency on. You can use the time that you save during lent for prayer, bible reading, and mass.
