Luke 9:3

Gospel message

How do you handle power and authority, both spiritual and temporal? Jesus gave his apostles both power and authority to speak and to act in his name -- to cast out evil spirits, to heal, and to speak the word of God. When Jesus spoke of power and authority he did something unheard of. He wedded power and authority with love and humility. The "world" and the "flesh" seek power for selfish gain. Jesus teaches us to use it for the good of our neighbor. Why does Jesus tell the apostles to "travel light" with little or no provision? "Poverty of spirit" frees us from greed and preoccupation with possessions and makes ample room for God's provision.

The Lord wants his disciples to be dependent on him and not on themselves. He wills to work through and in each of us for his glory. Are you ready to handle the power and authority which God wishes you to exercise on his behalf? The Lord entrusts us with his gifts and talents. Are you eager to place yourself at his service, to do whatever he bids you, and to witness his truth and saving power to whomever he sends you? "Lord, make me a channel of your grace and healing love that others may find life and freedom in you. Free me from all other attachments that I may joyfully pursue the things of heaven. May I witness the joy of the gospel both in word and deed."

Father's Day

Although it was only in 1972 that President Richard Nixon signed the proclamation that made Father's Day a federal holiday, Catholics have celebrated a form of Father's Day since the Middle Ages. Traditionally, many Catholics would celebrate fatherhood on March 19th, which is the Feast of St. Joseph. Continuing that tradition, we should use Father's day as an opportunity to honor not only our fathers, but also St. Joseph and the almighty Father. Even those of us that haven't been blessed with a father can use the holiday to thank and remember the priests, relatives, and others that filled in as father-figures.
