Gospel message

Do you know and experience in your life the power of the gospel? The core of the gospel message is quite simple: the kingdom (or reign) of God is imminent! What is the kingdom of God? It is that society of men and women who submit to God and who honor him as their King and Lord. In the Lord's prayer we pray for God to reign in our lives and in our world: May your kingdom come and your will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Jesus' preaching of God's kingdom was accompanied by signs and wonders. People were healed not only spiritually, but physically as well. Jesus' words are just as relevant today, the kingdom of heaven is at hand. We cannot buy heaven; but those who know the love and mercy of Jesus already possess heaven in their hearts! Do you believe in the power of God's kingdom? Jesus commissioned his disciples to carry on the works which he did -- to speak God's word and to bring his healing power to the weary and oppressed. In the choice of the twelve apostles we see a characteristic feature of God's work: Jesus chose very ordinary people. They were nonprofessionals, had no wealth or position. They were chosen from the common people who did ordinary things, had no special education, and no social advantages. Jesus wanted ordinary people who could take an assignment and do it extraordinarily well. He chose these men, not for what they were, but for what they would be capable of becoming under his direction and power. When the Lord calls us to serve, we must not think we have nothing to offer. The Lord takes what ordinary people, like us, can offer and uses it for greatness in his kingdom. Do you believe that God wants to work through and in you for his glory? "Lord, you have chosen me to be your disciple. Take and use what I can offer, however meager it may seem, for the greater glory of your name."

Christina The Astonishing

St. Christina, the patron saint of people with mental health disorders, celebrates her feast this Sunday. After succumbing to a massive seizure at the age of 21, the doctors at the time thought she had died and arranged to have her buried.

However, during her funeral, she arose. She described to the people that she had seen heaven and that she had been given a choice to stay in purgatory or practice penance on earth. After this "resurrection" she lived to the age of 74. Although she was never formally venerated by the Catholic Church, she has as strong base of devotees in her native region of Limburg.
