Gospel message

Are you missing out on what's most important in life? Being unprepared can lead to a lot of unnecessary trouble and even disastrous consequences! What good is a life-jacket left on shore when the boat is sinking? Jesus' story of ten silly girls seems strange to westerners today. But his audience knew all too well how easily this could happen to them. Wedding customs in ancient Palestine required extra vigilance and preparation for everyone involved. (Some near eastern villages still follow this custom.) The bride and groom did not go away for their honeymoon, but celebrated for a whole week with their family and friends. It was the custom for the groom to come at his discretion and get his bride and bring her to the wedding party. If he came at night lamps were required by necessity. To show up for a night party without a wedding garment and a lamp is like showing up for a play or movie that requires a reservation and a ticket. You just don't get in without the proper pass. Can you imagine the frustration one experiences in traveling abroad and finding out you can't get into some country because you don't have a valid passport or visa.

Jesus warns us that there are consequences for being unprepared. There are certain things you cannot obtain at the last moment. For example, a student cannot prepare for his exam when the day of testing is upon him. A person cannot get the right kind of character or skill required for a task at hand unless he already possesses it. Our eternal welfare depends on our hearing, and many have trained themselves to not hear. We will not be prepared to meet the Lord, face to face, when he calls us on the day of judgment, unless we listen to him today. The Lord invites us to feast at his banquet table. Are you ready?

“Lord, make me vigilant and attentive to your voice that I may heed your call at all times. May I find joy in your presence and delight in doing your will.”

CCD Update

Sunday, Nov 6th, our CCD school is celebrating All Saints Day. We will be conducting all of the programs as usual. There will be classroom teachings about the Saints during CCD. After that, there will be an All Saints Day Parade from the school to the church. All the students are requested to dress up like a Saint, especially the younger students. Starting Nov 6th, the second graders will be having CCD classes along with the upper classes at 10:00 AM and will attend the English Mass afterwards. After the Parade, there will be All Saints Day Litany and Pledge and Holy Mass in the church. After the mass, there will be candy sharing among the students. All the parents are requested to bring one bag of candy (fully wrapped only) to the school to be distributed the students.

CCD NEWS

All Hallow's Eve

This Monday, many Americans will celebrate "Halloween," a celebration with surprising Christian origins. In fact, the name "Halloween" is shorthand for "Hallows Evening." It began as a day on which Christians would host vigils preceding All Saint's Day. So, while Halloween has become largely secular, its roots are Christian. This Halloween, have fun, dress up, and trick or treat but take a moment to remember its origins.
