"Every man serves the good wine first; and when men have drunk freely, then the poor wine; but you have kept the good wine until now."

John 2:10

Gospel Message

God reveals his glory in the unlikeliest of places – in a stable at Bethlehem, at a wedding party in Cana, in a muddy Jordan river, and on a bloody cross on Golgatha. Jesus' first public miracle (his first sign) was performed at the insistence of his mother. Jesus blessed a young couple and brought joy to their wedding party.

First by his presence, and second by saving them from embarrassment when the wine ran out. Changing water into wine was a remarkable act of kindness; but giving the best to last was unnecessary and unheard of. In the Old Testament wine was often seen as a gift and symbol of God's blessing (Deut. 7:13; Prov. 3:10, Psalm 105:). That Jesus would miraculously produce 120 gallons of the best wine (many times more than needed) shows the superabundance of the blessings which he came to offer.

This miracle signifies the new rich wine of the Gospel and it points to the "wine of the new covenant" and the "bread of life" which Jesus provides for his disciples in the Lord's Supper or Eucharist. It also points to the Messianic banquet which Jesus will provide at the end of time. The miracles of Jesus demonstrate the power of God's love and mercy for his people. God's kindness knows no limits. And the ultimate expression of his love is revealed in the person of his Son, our Lord Jesus Christ. He became flesh for our sake, and he died for our redemption, and he rose for our glorification. Do you thirst for God and for the life of holiness he offers?

Do you thirst for God and for the life of holiness he offers?

"Father, you have revealed your glory in our Lord Jesus Christ. Fill me with your Holy Spirit that I may bring you glory in all that I do and say."

Feast of Candelaria

This Thursday, many Bolivian Christians will be celebrating the "Feast of Candelaria." On this day, they celebrate the 1576 appearance of the Virgin Mary to a group of Inca fisherman. Caught in a terrible storm on Lake Titica, they built a shrine with the statue of Mary, which then led to an appearance. Since their survival, the day has been celebrated for years, with activities ranging from dances and music to bull chases. To this day, the statue of the Virgin of Candelaria is the most important pilgrimage location in all of Bolivia.
